Outcomes

Objectives

To contribute to the training of the local seed networks (members of the Spanish Seed Network) on restrictive and collective cultivated biodiversity management systems and their implications.

Positive and negative points

Strengths

- Presence of many local seed networks.

Weaknesses

- Participants have not deep knowledge in the issue.

Relevance

It's fundamental to contribute to the training of local seed networks on these themes.

Tricks for other partners

It's essential to train seed savers and seed networks in managing systems and their implications.

Perspectives

To analyze possible cases of misappropriation that may be occurring in the territories.
